

What's in the Bottle?

Region · Grape · Style — A Global Cheat Sheet

Old World wines rarely show the grape on the label — you're expected to know that Sancerre means Sauvignon Blanc and Chablis means Chardonnay. This guide decodes every major region so you always know what's inside. kazmicellars.com

■■ France
AOC — Place-Forward. The appellation tells you the grape. Grape rarely shown on label.
REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Sancerre / Pouilly-Fumé Loire Valley	Sauvignon Blanc	Bright, mineral, citrus-driven, flinty WHITE
Chablis Northern Burgundy	Chardonnay	Crisp, flinty, unoaked, oyster-shell minerality WHITE
White Burgundy Meursault, Puligny, Chassagne	Chardonnay	Rich, layered, oaked, hazelnut and bread WHITE
Red Burgundy Volnay, Pommard, Gevrey-Chambertin	Pinot Noir	Earthy, silky, red fruit, forest floor with age RED
Beaujolais Cru: Morgon, Moulin-à-Vent, Fleurie	Gamay	Bright, juicy, low tannin, easy-drinking RED
Champagne Epernay / Reims	Chardonnay + Pinot Noir + Pinot Meunier	Sparkling — world's benchmark for fine bubbles SPARKLING
Left Bank Bordeaux Pauillac, Margaux, Saint-Estèphe	Cabernet-led Blend	Structured, age-worthy, cassis and cedar RED
Right Bank Bordeaux Pomerol, Saint-Émilion	Merlot-led Blend	Plush, approachable, plum and chocolate RED
Châteauneuf-du-Pape Southern Rhône	Grenache + Syrah + Mourvèdre	Spicy, full-bodied, warm Mediterranean herbs RED
Northern Rhône Côte-Rôtie, Hermitage, Cornas	Syrah	Smoky, peppery, dark fruit, sometimes bacon RED
Vouvray Loire Valley	Chenin Blanc	Honey, quince — can be dry or sweet, read carefully WHITE
Sauternes Bordeaux	Sémillon + Sauvignon Blanc	Sweet, honeyed, apricot, botrytis-affected SWEET
Muscadet Loire, Atlantic coast	Melon de Bourgogne	Lean, saline — the classic with raw oysters WHITE
Alsace Northeast France	Riesling, Gewurztraminer, Pinot Gris	Exception: Alsace labels show the grape variety WHITE

Italy

DOCG > DOC > IGT — Tradition-Forward. Region + tradition. Riserva = aged longer.

REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Chianti / Chianti Classico Tuscany	Sangiovese	Cherry, herbs, savory, food-friendly acidity RED
Brunello di Montalcino Tuscany	100% Sangiovese	Powerful, structured, age-worthy 20+ years RED
Barolo / Barbaresco Piedmont	Nebbiolo	Rose, tar, intense tannin — 'the king of wines' RED
Valpolicella Veneto	Corvina + Rondinella + Molinara	Light, cherry, easy-drinking RED
Amarone della Valpolicella Veneto	Corvina blend (dried grapes)	Rich, raisined, powerful — air-dried before fermenting RED
Soave Veneto	Garganega	Citrus, almond, light Veneto white WHITE
Prosecco Veneto / Friuli	Glera	Sparkling, fresh, peach and pear (Charmat method) SPARKLING
Etna Rosso Sicily	Nerello Mascalese	Volcanic, light, mineral — Sicily's Pinot Noir RED
Barolo (Langhe) Piedmont	Barbera	High acid, low tannin — Piedmont's everyday red RED
Gavi / Cortese Piedmont	Cortese	Crisp, almond, delicate — the white of Piedmont WHITE
Frascati Lazio (Rome)	Malvasia + Trebbiano	Light, dry, earthy — Rome's classic white WHITE

Spain

DOCa > DO — Aging-Forward. Aging tier is the headline: Crianza < Reserva < Gran Reserva.

REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Rioja La Rioja / Navarra	Tempranillo	Cherry, vanilla, leather (American oak signature) RED
Ribera del Duero Castile	Tempranillo (Tinto Fino)	Darker, more powerful than Rioja — plummy RED
Priorat Catalonia	Garnacha + Cariñena	Concentrated, mineral, slate-driven RED
Rías Baixas Galicia	Albariño	Saline, citrus, peach — the Spanish oyster wine WHITE

Sherry / Jerez Andalusia	Palomino	Saline, nutty, fortified — dry to sweet styles FORTIFIED
Cava Catalonia	Macabeo + Xarel-lo + Paredada	Sparkling, traditional method, apple and bread SPARKLING
Rueda Castile	Verdejo	Crisp, herbal, nutty — Spain's best dry white WHITE
Bierzo Castile / León	Mencia	Floral, light, mineral — Spain's Pinot Noir equivalent RED

Germany & Austria

Pradikat System — Riesling-Forward. Sweetness level on the label: Kabinett → Spätlese → Auslese → BA → TBA.

REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Mosel Germany	Riesling	Floral, slate mineral, low alcohol — dry to sweet WHITE
Rheingau Germany	Riesling	Fuller than Mosel, peach and citrus, age-worthy WHITE
Rheinhessen Germany	Riesling / Silvaner	Broad range from simple to serious WHITE
Pfalz Germany	Riesling / Pinot Noir	Warmer, riper style — Germany's most versatile region WHITE
Wachau Austria	Grüner Veltliner	Peppery, citrus, herbal — Austria's signature white WHITE
Kamptal / Kremstal Austria	Grüner Veltliner / Riesling	Mineral, fresh, food-friendly WHITE
Burgenland Austria	Blaufrankisch	Spicy, peppery, dark cherry — Austria's great red RED

Portugal

DOC — Tradition-Forward. Native grapes dominate. Port is the world benchmark for sweet fortified wine.

REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Vinho Verde Northwest Portugal	Alvarinho + Loureiro blend	Light, slightly fizzy, fresh — perfect summer wine WHITE
Douro (table wine) Douro Valley	Touriga Nacional + Field Blend	Dark, complex, structured — the dry side of Port country RED
Port (Vintage) Douro Valley	Touriga Nacional + Field Blend	Sweet, fortified, dark fruit and spice — ages decades FORTIFIED
Port (Tawny) Douro Valley	Touriga Nacional + Field Blend	Nutty, caramel, dried fruit — aged oxidatively in barrel FORTIFIED

Alentejo Southern Portugal	Aragonez (Tempranillo) + Alicante Bouschet	Warm, ripe, earthy — Portugal's most food-friendly red RED
Madeira Madeira Island	Sercial, Verdelho, Bual, Malmsey	Unique oxidized fortified — can age 100+ years FORTIFIED

USA & New World

Grape-Forward. Label leads with the variety. AVA (USA) or GI (Australia) tells you where.

REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Napa Valley Cabernet California, USA	Cabernet Sauvignon	Rich, concentrated, cassis — California's flagship red RED
Sonoma Pinot Noir Russian River Valley, USA	Pinot Noir	Bright cherry, earthy, elegant — benchmark US Pinot RED
Willamette Valley Oregon, USA	Pinot Noir	Cool-climate, silky, Burgundy-inspired RED
Barossa Valley South Australia	Shiraz	Bold, jammy, chocolate, vanilla from American oak RED
Margaret River Western Australia	Cabernet Sauvignon / Chardonnay	Elegant, structured — Australia's most Bordeaux-like region RED
Marlborough New Zealand	Sauvignon Blanc	Intensely aromatic, passion fruit, cut grass WHITE
Central Otago New Zealand	Pinot Noir	Concentrated, silky, cherry — world's southernmost Pinot RED
Mendoza (Luján de Cuyo) Argentina	Malbec	Plum, violet, dark chocolate — Argentina's signature RED
Uco Valley Argentina	Malbec (high altitude)	More structured, mineral, higher acidity than lowland Malbec RED
Maipo Valley Chile	Cabernet Sauvignon	Firm, dark fruit, eucalyptus — Chile's Cabernet heartland RED
Casablanca / Leyda Chile	Sauvignon Blanc / Pinot Noir	Cool coastal, crisp, mineral — Chile's finest whites WHITE
Stellenbosch South Africa	Cabernet Sauvignon / Chenin Blanc	Structured reds, old-vine Chenin — Cape's finest RED

Other Regions Worth Knowing

Beyond the classics — regions producing world-class wine that most people haven't discovered yet.

REGION	GRAPE(S)	STYLE
Santorini Greece	Assyrtiko	Volcanic, saline, electric acidity — extraordinary white WHITE

Nemea Greece	Agiorgitiko	Dark cherry, herbs, smooth — Greece's most approachable red RED
Naoussa Greece	Xinomavro	Tannic, complex, dried tomato — Greece's Barolo RED
Bekaa Valley Lebanon	Cabernet + Cinsault + Carignan	Warm, spiced, complex — Château Musar is the benchmark RED
Tokaj Hungary	Furmint	Dry to intensely sweet — world's greatest dessert wine tradition SWEET
Etna Sicily, Italy	Nerello Mascalese	Light, volcanic mineral, elegant — the new Burgundy of Italy RED
Swartland South Africa	Chenin Blanc / Syrah	Old vine, natural wine movement — South Africa's most exciting region WHITE